

SARA ZEREHI

FAMILY LAW

BIOGRAPHY

Sara Zerehi is an associate for Liner LLP's Family Law Group. Her practice focuses on premarital agreements, complex, high-income dissolution actions, child custody, child support and spousal support matters.

Sara has worked on matters requiring complicated economic valuations of various intellectual property, as well as drafting documents for use in expert testimony in litigation. She has also participated in advanced legal research regarding mergers and acquisitions, fiduciary duties, benefit corporations, and management-led buyout regulations.

Sara received her J.D. from UCLA School of Law and her B.A. in economics from UCLA. In law school, Sara served as Social Committee Chair and Class Representative of the Student Bar Association General Assembly. She was also the University Relations Coordinator for the Law and Entrepreneurship Association and the Entertainment Law and Business Administration Editor for the UCLA Entertainment Law Review.
